Local Department.

T. W. Green, Esq., of Kendall, made us a pleasant call on Saturday last.

Services Sunday morning and evening at the First Baptist church, in the vestry.

Mr. Fred Snow, type of the Dowagiac Republican, spent a few days here last week.

Mrs. Elvira Hendrick arrived home a few days since, after a protracted visit to friends in Ohio.

The Hartford school is closed for a short time, waiting for Prof. Bradt to recover from the measles.

We are under obligations to Prof. C. D. Lawton, of Lawton, for a copy of the Mineral Statistics of Michigan.

The Shakespeare club of this village had a pleasant meeting at the residence of E. A. Crane, last Tuesday evening.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will have a warm sugar social, at the Parsonage this (Friday) evening. Everybody invited.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal church, will hold a social at the residence of B. F. Stearns, this (Thursday) evening. All are cordially invited.

On Monday last before Esq. Mason, charged with being drunk, in the Dyckman House, Charles Mentor. Plead guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

O. W. went on a fishing excursion last Saturday. He says he always had better luck in getting bites, in the month of July than March. (Mosquito bites).

Read Broughton's new "ad." He has a splendid stock of new carpets. Just call and see them. He will be pleased to show them, whether you want to buy or not.

The Ladies Christian Aid Society will hold their social at the residence of David Woodman 2nd, on Wednesday evening of next week. A cordial invitation to all.

The Episcopal church will be open on Sunday and Monday next. Monday evening at 7½ o'clock a new vestry will be elected. All who are interested are invited to be present.

That dog of Pete's has broke his chain and vanished again; he is a yellow pup, and anyone finding the said canine will be liberally rewarded by returning him to C. R. Avery's store.

The Weekly (Watervliet) Record, with its last issue entered upon its second year. It is a bright, newsy sheet, and deserves the patronage it is receiving. It is evidently bound to succeed.

Mrs. Margaret Root, of Glendale, was the lucky woman who held No. 1776, and got Jay's new sewing machine. He is going to give away another one. Read his new "ad." and find out all about it.

John Sirrine, who has a job on the N. P. R. R., with his headquarters at Mandan, Dak., is home on a visit of two or three weeks. Judging from his personal appearance, Dakota agrees well with him.

Mr. Jos. Gilman has purchased the widow Glidden's place, on the corner of Kalamazoo and Paw Paw streets. He will thoroughly overhaul and repair the house, which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gilman.

The Paw Paw TRUE NORTHERNER has begun its twenty-ninth year with a growing circulation, a good advertising business, and not only present prosperity but a most promising future.—Detroit Post & Tribune.

Our friend C. R. Williams, of Magnolia, Ia., renewing his subscription to the NORTHERNER, writes, send the paper along all the time, "could not keep house without it." Such words of appreciation are very pleasant for us.

On Friday last the "Narrow Gauge" made a trip to Hartford, the first for several weeks. The engine got off the track while turning on the "y" at that place, but no damage was done. Trains will, doubtless, hereafter run regularly to that pleasant village.

The Paw Paw TRUE NORTHERNER has reached its twenty-ninth year. It has for a long time been regarded as one of the institutions of Van Buren County. The TRUE NORTHERNER is a neatly printed and newsy sheet, and deserves the success which it has attained.—Detroit Free Press.

Articles of association have been completed and a company organized for an extension of the Narrow Gauge from Lawton to some point of the G. R. & I. R. R., and from thence to Nottawa. An enthusiastic meeting was held at Centerville last Tuesday, and the following officers elected: J. F. Wolf, of Centerville, President; Edwin Martin, of Paw Paw, Treasurer; L. A. Clapp, of Centerville, Secretary, and John Ihling, of Lawton, Superintendent. All that is needed now to secure this, the most desirable railroad in the county, is a united effort of all those who will be benefitted by it.

Register! Register!!

"Mike" thinks he can see very Plain—well—with his new cap on.

Hi. Flanders has been re-appointed Marshal of his native village.

Call and see Mrs. Prater's Easter Cards, etc., advertised in this paper.

Mrs. Hannah Hazard, of Lawrence, aged ninety years, grandmother of Mrs. O. W. Rowland, is very ill.

Next Tuesday evening there will be a Grange social at the residence of Ed. Gilman. An "old time supper" will be served. Everybody invited.

Prof. C. E. Hutchins has returned from Vermontville. He reports a very successful institute at that place. He is making a success teaching music.

At the meeting of the Executive Board of the Van Buren County Agricultural Society, last Tuesday, some important changes were made in the rules and regulations of the Society. For one thing, all entry fees were abolished. We will give a full statement of these changes next week.

Windy Wiggins wiggles out by professing himself satisfied with his one horse storm.

When a prophet prophesies powerful storms, stirring and strong enough to blow blizzards like blue blazes, the people do not like to accept such side shows. Wiggins is a bigger blowhard than his big blizzard.

Next Sabbath evening, March 18th, at the Presbyterian church, Mr. F. W. Sellick will give a second lecture descriptive of his recent journey to the Holy Land. The route described will be from Jerusalem to the Dead Sea and the Jordan River, and back to Jerusalem again. All are invited.

Free & Martin's stove mill came near going up in smoke for a second time, a few nights since. Some one had built a fire in front of the arch, but it was fortunately discovered and extinguished, about four o'clock in the morning, by the party in charge of Briggs' mill. It is supposed to have been the work of a couple of tramps who were seen in town the evening before.

We have received a copy of the Janesville (Wis.) Gazette, containing an interesting sketch of Burr Robbins' Grand American and German Allied Shows, in winter quarters at that place. Burr will open the season at Janesville on the 30th day of April next, and then take the road for the west. Burr's many friends here rejoice at his success, and would be pleased if his route should lead through our county once more.

The store of Sherman & Avery is thoroughly dismantled. Gilman & De La Vergne have purchased Sherman's half of the stock and removed the same to the Grange store. Mr. Avery has taken his part of the stock to Bloomingdale. The store will be repaired and arches cut through the wall, into Longwell's drug store, so as to make one large store room, and then be filled up with a large stock of groceries and crockery.

We have received numbers 2 and 4, Vol. 1, of Our Magazine, an amateur publication, devoted to Literature, Natural History, and Fun, published at Bennington, Vt., and edited by Miss Irene Putnam, a young Miss of 12 years. It is a very tasty magazine, filled with interesting matter, and the manner in which it is edited would do credit to an older head. We notice that Mrs. L. A. Millington, a cousin of our townsman, Frank Millington, is a contributor to its columns.

The "Sheet and pillow-case" dance at the Opera House last Friday evening, is said by those who were there, to have been a very pleasant and enjoyable party. The wearing of bed linen is a novel and inexpensive method of masking. The party was the outgrowth of Miss Shedd's dancing school. Miss S. seems to be meeting with that degree of success which energy and perseverance deserves. Those who desire instruction in the terpsichorean art, will not be apt to find a more favorable opportunity to obtain it, than by placing themselves under her instruction.

Miss Caddie Thompson, who has been a successful teacher in our school so long that the patrons of the school and the district board had come to regard her as almost a fixture, has tendered her resignation to take effect at the close of the present term. The reason for such action on her part is failing health. Miss T. has been an earnest, faithful, conscientious and successful teacher, and her constant labors have so worn upon her that rest has become indispensable. We understand that after a time she intends to take a course in the commercial school at Grand Rapids. Her place as teacher will be filled by Mrs. Emma Heckert, who was formerly a teacher in the school, and is thoroughly familiar with it, and who is a great success as an instructress. There will be no break nor jar in the work when the change is made, as there might be in case the vacancy was filled by some one not acquainted with the school.
